

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xi
1 The Real Cost of Ownership	1
2 Using Your Aircraft	11
3 Insuring Your Aircraft	17
Choosing the Insured Value	18
Hull Coverage	18
Liability and/or Medical Coverage	19
Add-Ons for Insurance	20
Know the Policy Limitations	21
Finding the Right Agent	22
Ways to Lower Your Insurance Premium	25
4 Taxes and Your Aircraft, by Christopher Harper, CPA, MBA	27
5 Picking the Right Airport to Call Home	35
FBO and Fueling Services	36
Available Maintenance Services	41
Rented Aircraft Storage (and Hangars)	41
Airport Infrastructure	42
Airspace and Approaches for All-Weather Access	46
Airport Security	47
Other Users of the Airport	49
Emergency Services	50
Private Airports	50
Community	50
6 What to Look for in Aircraft Storage (Hangars and More)	53
Outdoor Options	53
General Hangar Considerations	55

Community Hangars	60
FBO Hangar Rental	61
T-Hangars and Box Hangars	63
Larger Hangars	64
Building or Purchasing Your Own Hangar	65
Location, Location, Location	70
7 Tugs and Towbars	73
Factors to Consider	73
Types of Tugging Equipment and Methods of Moving Aircraft	74
Safety and Damage Prevention	78
Seasonal Conditions	79
Remember to Remove the Towbar	80
8 Maintaining Your Aircraft	83
Required Documents	83
Required Inspections	87
Finding the “Right” Maintenance Provider	91
Equipment That Frequently Breaks or Needs Replacement	95
Tracking Aircraft Maintenance	97
Pro Tips for Preventative and General Maintenance	99
9 Documents You Should Own for Your Aircraft: Maintenance and Parts Manuals	103
10 Organizing Your Aircraft’s Logs for Better Maintenance	107
Get Organized	108
Create a List of Inspections and When They Are Due	109
Have ADs Tracked and Well Documented	110
Insist on Detail in Mechanic’s Documentation of Completed Work	110
Know the Aircraft’s History	111
Make Copies and Store Them Safely	112
11 Inoperative Equipment: What You Shouldn’t Just Fly Without	115
Repair	117
Replace	117
Remove	117

12	Completing Your Own Maintenance: What Can You—and What Should You—Do Yourself?	119
13	Items You Should Own and Keep in Your Aircraft	125
	Less Common Items to Keep on Your Airplane	125
	Basic Tools Every Pilot Should Carry	129
14	Deciding If You Can Fly with Inoperative Equipment: MELs, KOLs, and Beyond	131
15	The Special Flight Permit	139
16	Modifying Your Aircraft to Enhance Performance	143
	Engines	144
	Propellers	146
	Expanding Fuel Capacity	149
	VGs for Gross Weight and Aerodynamic Performance	152
	Short-Field Performance	153
	Improvements for Rough Backcountry Flying	153
	Multiple Weight and Balance Documents	154
17	Avionics Upgrades	157
	Is It Time to Upgrade Avionics?	157
	Downgrading as an Upgrade	159
18	The Engine Overhaul or Swap	161
	When Should You Change or Overhaul an Aircraft Engine?	161
	Considerations When Completing an Engine Swap or Overhaul	163
19	Planning and Budgeting for Future Maintenance	167
20	Throwaway Planes?	175
21	Selling Your Aircraft	179
	Using a Broker	181
	Selling It Yourself	182
	Pricing Your Aircraft	184
	Tips to Make Your Aircraft More Saleable	186
	Negotiating and Finalizing the Sale	194
	About the Author	199